Tired of visiting the newsstand and finding the newest issue of WIRED or FANGORIA sold out? Did you know Third Eye can pull and hold all your favorite magazines for you? Yup, so, feel free to list any magazines you'd like to subscribe to. Please note, there will may be up to a two issue delay in when your magazine subscription begins to fill

THIRD EYE SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

Okay gang, here comes the not-so-fun, but very necessary part. The way the direct market (i.e comic and specialty stores) works is we buy our product non-returnable. So, in effect, when you have a title on your list, we are ordering it specifically for you. Due to the non-returnable nature of our product, we do have a few rules for our subscription service.

1. You must pick up your subscription folder once every 30 days. In rare and drastic cases (work is sending you out of town, death in the family, ect), we will hold your books longer, but you must get in contact with us to let us know if it will be longer than 30 days. After 30 days have past, we will make two attempts at contact to find out what’s going on. If no communication is received, then we will be forced to empty your folder and terminate your account.

2. You must buy all titles you have specifically added to your list. However, from time to time, we will stick cool reads in your folder that we think you may like (i.e you’re subscribed to Dark Avengers, and a one-shot or relevant limited series attached to the book may be dropped for you). You are under NO obligation to purchase anything we have stuck in your folder as a suggestion. These are purely recommendations, and not items on your subscription list. If money is tight, and you cannot get everything in your folder one week, you are more than welcome to put some of your titles back until the following week, but please be sure to get those titles held the following week.

3. You can cancel your subscription to a title at any time. We would appreciate at least two weeks notice when cancelling a title. If you do decide to drop a series, and do not want to get the newest issue that is in your folder, we’ll be more than happy to put that back on the rack for you. However, please try to give us notice so we can adjust our numbers.

4. All special order items of $75.00 or more require a 10% deposit, which will be deducted from the total of the item when it arrives.

5. When cancelling your subscription folder please give us at least two weeks notice, so we may allow time to adjust our orders. If you would like to suspend your folder (due to time issues, financial obligations, ect) then please let us know as soon as possible. We will keep your information, and subscription list on file, so when you are ready to re-activate, it’ll be a one-click process.
